

Contents

1	Introduction	1
	Terminology and Spelling	9
	References	9
2	The Release of Cosmic Cows	11
	The Rigveda—Cows Ranging in Meaning	13
	The Upanishads—Cows and the Acquisition of Higher Knowledge	20
	The Mahabharata—Pursuing Dharma with Cows	23
	The Bhagavata Purana—Cows in the World of Bhakti	28
	Krishna and His Cows in Vraja	35
	Vraja Bhakti Poetry—The Buttery Sweet Language of Love	40
	Compilations—Trails Toward Modern Cow Care	44
	Concluding Reflections	46
	References	47
3	Cows in Contested Fields	53
	Hindus’ Modern Concern for Cows	59
	Dayananda Saraswati: “Cow—Reservoir of Compassion”	60

Mahatma Gandhi: “The Law of Our Religion”	63
B. R. Ambedkar: Compassion Denied the “Untouchables”	68
Bhaktivedanta Swami Prabhupada:
Cow Care for the World	70
Ancient Texts, Modern Controversies	76
Nonviolence Preferred in Dharmashastra	82
Thinking Aloud in the Sacrifice of War	87
Violence, Nonviolence—And Cows in the Bhagavad Gita and Bhagavata Purana	91
Concluding Reflections	96
References	102
 4 Surveying the Cow Care Field	 109
Cows (Un)Sheltered	111
The Economics of Reverence and Care	118
Bovine Products as Added Value	126
Milk	126
Ghee	129
Dung and Urine	134
Panchagavya	135
Male Bovine Care and the Issue of Violence	137
Intangible Benefits of Bovine Care and Proximity	144
Bovines as Purifying Agents	144
Learning Lessons from Cows	147
“Keeping Cows, You Keep Your Sanity”	149
Go-seva and Bhakti	151
Ritual Bovine Veneration: Creating and Affirming Community	153
Concluding Reflections	157
References	160
 5 Cow Care and the Ethics of Care	 167
Dharma and Animal Ethics	168
Dharma as Settled Duty	170
Dharma as Deliberation on Right Action	172
Dharma as Cultivation of Virtue	175

From Dharma to Yoga	177
From Yoga to Bhakti	182
Reverence in the Bhakti Paradigm	186
Ethics of Care and Hindu Animal Ethics	189
Animal Citizenship, Community, and Bhakti	192
Dharma-Based Communitarianism	201
Concluding Reflections	204
References	206
 6 “These Cows Will Not Be Lost”: Envisioning a Care-Full Future for Cows	 211
Anticipatory Communities	213
Mayapur Chandrodaya Mandir, West Bengal	214
New Vraja Dhama, Hungary	218
Departing Bovine Souls	225
Contested Lives at Bhaktivedanta Manor and Skanda Vale	227
Krishna the Ox Breathes His Last in Vrindavan	231
When Cow Protection Activism Becomes Counterproductive	233
Cow Protection in Three Qualities	236
Six Affirmations on the Dharma of Cow Care	239
References	245
 7 Concluding Ruminations	 249
Changing Taste	253
References	258
 Index	 261